

Leadership Team

JOHN J. MAZACH

Vice President
Business Development
Northrop Grumman Corporation
Shipbuilding

John Mazach is vice president for Business Development at Northrop Grumman Shipbuilding-Newport News. Named to this position in 2008, he is responsible for all business development, marketing and customer relations initiatives. A retired vice admiral, Mazach previously served as vice president for Business Development at the company's former Newport News sector. He is based in Washington, D.C.

Prior to joining Newport News in 2002 he served as director, Navy and Marine Corps Programs, Business Development for Northrop Grumman Integrated Systems. He joined Northrop Grumman in 1999 as the deputy director of Field Support Services for the Integrated Systems sector in Cecil Field, Florida. He also worked at the sector's St. Augustine site establishing the Aircraft Product Support and Services organization.

Mazach served 32 years in the United States Navy as a naval aviator, flying fighter and attack aircraft from numerous aircraft carriers during his career. Prior to retiring with the rank of vice admiral as commander, Naval Air Force, U. S. Atlantic Fleet, Mazach was director for Strategy and Policy for the Office of the Chief of Naval Operations in Washington, DC. He also served as commander for Carrier Group Two, deputy director for Plans and Policy for the Commander in Chief, U.S. European Command in Stuttgart, Germany and he commanded the USS America (CV 66) during Operation Desert Shield/Storm in 1991.

Mazach has a bachelor's degree from Vanderbilt University and is a graduate of numerous executive level service colleges. He serves as a member of the national board of directors for the Armed Services YMCA of the USA and is also a Trustee at the Naval Aviation Museum Foundation as well as a member of the board of directors for the Tailhook Association.

Northrop Grumman Shipbuilding, a newly-formed sector of Northrop Grumman Corporation, is made up of the former Northrop Grumman Ship Systems and Newport News shipbuilding entities.

Northrop Grumman Corporation is a $32 billion global defense and technology company whose 120,000 employees provide innovative systems, products, and solutions in information and services, electronics, aerospace and shipbuilding to government and commercial customers worldwide.